On April 19&20, 2024 The Sierra Valley Grange will present Belinda Gail, Dennis Golden and John Flournoy.
Fri Dinner : Braised Beef, Saturday: Country Style Pork Ribs

America's Western Sweetheart, Belinda Gail: Academy of Western Artists 3 Time Female Vocalist of the Year, Western Music Assoc. 7 time Female Performer of the Year is back on our stage. A long time favorite raised on ranches in Nevada's Carson Valley and the Sierra Nevada foot hills. Belinda's ranching heritage and love of the West runs deep in the fabric of who she is a person, her music and as a performer. She has performed throughout the US, Canada and Europe.

Range Poet and Story Teller Dennis Golden: Raised in the small ranching community of Cedarville, Ca in the 40's and 50's, Dennis spent his youth working on Northern California and Nevada ranches where he was introduced to cowboy poetry. Over the years Dennis has performed with many of the favorites, Waddie Mitchell, Don Edwards, Baxter Black and others in Elko and other events across the West. Dennis is also a Master Dutch Oven chef and was a regular on PBS "Outdoor Nevada", 7 years running. We know you will enjoy his often humorous poetry, banter and harmonica riffs keeping you guessing what he has up his sleeve.

Singer Song Writer John Flournoy: John hails from Northern California where his family has been ranching for 150 years. Growing up, his dad and his band mates introduced young John to music along with teaching the ranching business. After a stint in the Army where he learned to fly he trained cadets to fly for several years he came back home he came to his Modoc roots where he got to work raising kids and cattle. Along the way he played his music with sidekicks in Northern California developing a unique style of never heard before cowboy songs with some humor thrown in. Prepare for some hilarious side splitting songs you've never heard before.
